February 19: Bringing Equity into Your Plan

The Puget Sound Region boasts one of the fastest growing economies and populations of the entire county, but also claims some of the greatest disparities in health, access to affordable housing and transportation options, and income distribution across race and class. The February 19th Toolbox will focus on data resources, feature equity assessments, and highlight equitable implementation strategies to ensure that all residents benefit from the region's growing prosperity. Come learn how local jurisdictions are working hand-in-hand with advocates to bring equity into the plan.

Speakers: Matias Valenzuela, King County Equity and Social Justice; Carol Merrill, King County Metro with Alison Eisinger, Seattle/King County Coalition on Homelessness; Ryan Curren and Nick Welch, City of Seattle Equitable Development Initiative; Amy Bates, Solutions for Humanity, Community, and the Environment; Rebecca Saldaña, Puget Sound Sage and Regional Equity Network.

Attend in person: February 19th from 12:30-2:00 at PSRC, 1011 Western Avenue, Suite 500, Seattle, 98104.
