About the Washington Chapter of the American Planning Association (APA WA)

The Washington Chapter of the American Planning Association is an organization of people with an interest in land use, housing, transportation, environmental, economic and social planning. Our membership of nearly 1,800 includes professional planners, citizen planners and planning commissioners, and other planning officials within the State of Washington and elsewhere, and our newsletter reaches more than 6,000 planning professionals monthly.

Who We Are

The American Planning Association Washington (APA WA) comprises professionals dedicated to long-range land use planning, policy development for housing, transportation, and environmental protection, and public engagement. Members utilize tools like GIS mapping and databases, review permits, and strive to improve communities.

Our Mission

The Washington Chapter of the American Planning Association provides leadership in the development of vital communities by advocating excellence in community planning, promoting education and citizen empowerment, and providing the tools and support necessary to meet the challenges of growth and change.

Our Purpose

The purposes of the Chapter are to facilitate the individual participation of members of the American Planning Association, to conduct the affairs of the Association, and to further the purposes of the Association in the Chapter area.
