Join Us in Puget Sound!

We are excited to have this year's APA Washington Annual Planning Conference in the beautiful Puget Sound region! Represented by the Chapter's Puget Sound Section, the region includes Snohomish, King, and Pierce counties where half our state's population calls home. From the Pacific Ocean to the Cascade Mountains and everything in between, there is something for everyone. While you're in town, we hope you'll take advantage of the nearby public transportation options and check out more of what our region has to offer!

Sponsorships

The APA Washington Annual Conference is an exciting opportunity to add your voice to others who are actively involved in working to create great communities. Your organization can be an active partner by participating as a sponsor while also networking and collaborating with your peers and clients. To continue the success of the APA Washington Annual Conference, we rely on the generous sponsorship of organizations and companies like yours to ensure that we can offer a quality event at the lowest possible cost to participants. Please consider supporting the conference through a sponsorship.

If you have any questions about sponsorship, please contact Stefanie Young at stefanie.young@gmail.com or (206) 660-4513. If you are interested in exhibiting, please contact Stephanie Kennedy, Event Manager, at (503) 626-8197 or totaleventconnection@gmail.com.

MOBILE WORKSHOPS

THURSDAY, SEPT 28

9:00 – 12:00 pm

Cost $65

Seattle Design Commission's 2016 Design Excellence Awards

Participants for this mobile workshop will visit four public projects that received the Seattle Design Commission's 2016 Design Excellence Awards. The Seattle Design Commission (SDC) advises the Mayor, City Departments, and the City Council on the design and aesthetics of City-funded projects and projects that require long-term or permanent use of the right-of-way. These award winning projects exemplify the design commissions' mission – Design Excellence in the Public Realm, Design Practices that foster Innovative Sustainable Development, and designs that promote a world-class example of sustainable urban design for City facilities.

FRIDAY, SEPT 29

9:00 – 12:00 pm

Cost $65

Pike Pine Corridor

This mobile workshop will include a discussion of the codes and incentives for the Pike Pine corridor, a tour of recent developments that made use of these guidelines and incentives, and a discussion of the lessons learned in this area.

SPEAKERS

Roger Millar

Secretary of Transportation Roger Millar was appointed in August 2016. He joined WSDOT as deputy secretary in October 2015 and was appointed acting secretary in February 2016. Millar oversees an agency of 6,800 employees, with responsibility for 18,600 lane miles of highway, 3,294 bridges, general aviation airports, passenger- and freight-rail programs, and Washington State Ferries, the nation's largest ferry system.

Millar is a second generation civil engineer with 38 years of experience in the transportation arena. During that time, he has worked in construction, design, planning, research, policy development, management and administration in both the public and private sectors. Prior to joining WSDOT, he served for five years as vice president of Smart Growth America, a national not-for-profit organization, providing technical assistance to state transportation agencies in Florida, Michigan, Minnesota, Oregon, Tennessee and Vermont. Millar also served as director of the National Complete Streets Coalition.

Charles R. Wolfe

Charles R. (Chuck) Wolfe, M.R.P., J.D. provides a unique perspective about cities as both a long time writer about urbanism worldwide and an attorney in Seattle, where he focuses on land use and environmental law and permitting. He is also Founder and Principal Advisor at the Seeing Better Cities Group and an Affiliate Associate Professor in the College of Built Environments at the University of Washington, where he teaches land-use law at the graduate level. Chuck is an avid traveler, photographer, and writer, and contributes on urban development topics to several publications, including Planetizen, CityLab/The Atlantic Cities, The Atlantic, The Huffington Post, Grist, seattlepi.com, and Crosscut.com. He blogs at myurbanist.com.

Chuck also speaks nationally and worldwide, including recent and pending engagements in Sweden, Australia and Scotland. Before Seeing the Better City, his first book, Urbanism Without Effort, was published in electronic form by Island Press in 2013.
